1. In the infantry barracks called the Hesser barrack there is a rifle regiment . Only the headquarters, regimental troops and a single battalion are in this barracks.
2. At the Krest and Baden artillery barracks there is a horse-drawn artillery regiment, with all regimental troops and all three sections. The regiment has a total of thirty-two 105 mm guns.
3. At the northern end of Jihlava there used to be a hospital, which the Communist regime transformed into a barracks. New buildings were recently added to this barracks, along the bank of the little Jihlava river. The total complex is now occupied by a motorized SNB battalion of 500 to 580 men.
